Today by General Strike.**
* WHOLE STATE TO BE TIED UP BY STRIKE.

Philadelphia, Mar. 7.—E. E. Greenhill, president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and Labor, today declared that a general sympathetic strike will sweep up the entire state of New Jersey at a meeting of the Federation at Newark to-morrow.

Philadelphia, Mar. 7.—The eve of what will undoubtedly be the decisive day of the strike, when more for money and the recognition of the unions, both sides are claiming victory.

The strike leaders, in their general sympathetic strike, which began yesterday, will tomorrow assume the rôle of leaders when they make no estimate of the number who will walk out.

The police and the officers of the city, who claim that the general strike will turn out to be a fizzle and that in a couple of days not only the striking men will be back at work, but who are striking in sympathy with them, will all be begging to have their jobs back.

Meanwhile, however, the police are still beating their heads against the wall, and the special spring of Sunday, during which day light hours cars can run without interruption and the streets were filled with the bustle of the day, the trouble began at nightfall.

One man was fatally shot, several dozen were beaten by the police or run down by policeman's horses, and auto trucks and patrol wagons clang-ed and roared through the streets for hours carrying reinforcements to the troubous neighborhoods and carrying off the wounded.

"Give 'Em Hell," said Chief.

The liveliest tilt between the police and the strikers sympathizers happened at Eighth and Chestnut streets, in the Italian quarter down town. A crowd there stood half a dozen or more, and when the police came, they gave a sharp up with it about 50 feet off and a couple of mounted men behind them, and the crowd scattered.

The police, however, followed them, feet in their boots, footmen who wielded their sticks, and the crowd, and the cavalry forced their horses, were driven into the thickest of the crowd, shattering with their long riot sticks.

The police, however, responded with bricks and cobblestones, while from the roofs of the houses nearby showered stones and bricks.

The police won out after a brisk battle. When the street was cleared about 50 men, a couple of whom were plain clothes, were sent to the nearest hospital. Many innocent persons were among those who suffered.

Mob of 5,000.

At the Belmont car line in the northeast, a crowd of about 5,000 persons gathered after dark and stoned every car that appeared the scene, and the police took possession of the neighborhood.

The disturbers moved to Third and West street, where they attacked more cars.

There is a call for arms here, and a levying committee called a meeting and screamed an alarm. This was taken as indication of a fire and both men and women and children turned out, which brought out more policemen to the scene. Before the assemblage was dispersed, some one dumped a bomb on the sidewalk, and the bomb had to be shovelled the dirt away. They placed the flag on the floor of the first tier of the Belmont, where the crowd was clear. There was a hiss, cushioning and a little bit of throwing, but nobody was hit.

"Shoot to Kill."

Twenty-sixth street and Lehigh avenue in the northwest was the one possible fatality of the day. A crowd of 2,000 people chased the men out of the cars and guard from car and refused to let them out. The police men came to the rescue. The crowd held and the police to shoot. They fired, but they did not even though they did not have any effect.

The commander at last ordered back, enough to let the men out, kill, and his men charged with their guns in their hands directly at the crowd. Several of them were shot, and pierced the lungs of Robert Casto, who had been urging the mob to action. It was a massacre.

During the morning and after some of the 60 cars which the Rapid Transit company owned had been hit, the men had to be pulled from the front platform. The company officials hoped that this was over.

Cars Running at Night.

But what cars are running tonight, and all the policemen besides the motor-men. This is the question that could not be verified in the effect that a train on the subway elevated system had been fired upon and that two charges of buckshot cracked through the windows and burst close to the passengers. There is no strike on this system, and it has hitherto been quiet. The manager of the company told the story of the buckshot is a good one. The Bellevue Hotel staff and carmen were on the train that was fired on. Men who had been shot down from their hands and knees, he said, to earn further shooting. The station, sandwiched in at 49th and Market, where the trains run in the tunnel on the subway system, was shot upon on the subway system.

According to the strike leaders, a body blow will be administered to the strike, when the men will be calling out of the union firemen and engineers in the power house. Thomas J. Hayes, president of the National Association of Stationary Engineers.

"We have refrained from taking this step in the hopes that the company would arbitrate with its men, but if all else fails, we will call our men out and we will be sure to be enough firemen and engineers left in the eight power house to keep the plant running."

Spokane, Wash., Friday, Indian Head, Sun., March 6.—Geo. Ziegler, a whisky dealer, was arrested here Friday and yesterday remanded to jail to await trial. Giese and Ziegler lost their license by his evidence.

GERMANY'S SOCIALISTS
PROTEST AGAINST BILLGreat Demands in All the Large Cities—Anxious Suffrage, Bilingual
Democrats in Conflict With Police, Who Use Club Freshy.

Berlin, March 6 (Special Cable)—A dozen persons were wounded yesterday in a clash between the police and Socialists, who met to protest against the proposed bill.

In this city alone 16,000 persons took part in the demonstrations. The meeting took place in the Trapitz Park, where the police paraded and fought a terrible battle with the protesters. Throughout the day 100,000 persons were under arms in the city—dissolution became serious.

Police Use Club Freshy.

However, such a severe use of force was not repeated. The police used their clubs and sticks to beat the protesters, who responded by throwing stones and sometimes snow, and their conditions were altogether as bad as those of the miners in the Aures Lakes. Communication with the east is down for a long week, and the miners have been away by the slide.

Up to 100,000 persons remain in the section gangs in that vicinity, but a safe though probably it will take a day or two before they are able to pass the place of the strike.

The bill, which was one of the worst that was ever experienced in the railway section of the Capital, was passed over the heads of the railroads, and now the miners are to be sent to the Aures Lakes.

Communication with the east is down for a long week, and the miners have been away by the slide.

The miners have been found at Rogen Pass, in the section gangs in that vicinity, but a safe though probably it will take a day or two before they are able to pass the place of the strike.

The following is a list of the known dead:

W. Phillips, engineer, conductor.

J. Fraser, roadmaster.

T. B. Miller, foreman.

F. Wellander, foreman.

J. D. MacDonald, foreman.

A. Mahan, brakeman.

C. H. Bridge, foreman.

T. Thirtwain, Jap.

B. C. SUPREME COURT IS FIERCELY ASSAILED

Member for Vancouver Quotes Highest Legal Authority as Stating Court Is Composed of One Criminal, One Fool and Two Lunatics—Justice Clement Almed At.

Vancouver, B.C., March 5.—In the legend of yesterday, Mr. B. MacGowan, the member for Vancouver, delivered something of an attack on the unnamed members of the Supreme Court bench of British Columbia.

Said Mr. MacGowan: "A new and untried public administrator in a new country is apt to protect those who can protect themselves—a man who would be compelled to do his duty in the deed; better that he do the pell-mell, better that he be decorated with a laurel wreath than that he is coming to him, and that is what he should get."

Mr. MacGowan went on to say that he, a censor, and shealets were noblemen beside the man who, clothed in the King's authority, would rule the land.

He referred to the appearance of a dead man in gold and during his appearance when viewed by the police. There were between $15,000 and $20,000 in gold and $100 and $200 pieces, and the remainder was in bundles of bank bills of various denominations.

As there was no evidence of being been dishonestly secured it was left in the old trunk where it was found. The thief who was using the trunk left the country and was later promoted to the bench, finally arriving on the Supreme Court bench, Mr. MacGowan declared the highest legal authority in the province for the hearing of criminal cases in the Supreme Court of British Columbia, two inmates, one dead, one wounded, one criminal.

Constitutional. No personal declaration in recent years in the legislature had caused as much consternation as the attack on Justice Clement on Friday. Mr. MacGowan did not go into the details of the attack, except to say that he, a censor, and shealets will take any action or not they will take any action. One well known member of the bench declared that he had been threatened with attack, but he felt very strongly about it and insisted on placing himself in the hands of the police.

Justice Clement has not yet been heard from regarding the matter.

TARIFF WAR CLOUDS ABSENT.

Both United States and Canada anxious to Avoid Disagreement.

Ottawa, Ont., March 5 (Special)—The International Tariff Board of Conciliation, at the suggestion of the United States, has appointed Walter Lurton and Hon. W. S. Fielding representing Canada, to be in conference for several hours to-day to examine various features of Canada's tariff legislation bearing on the question of the proposed new United States tariff.

The Dominion's big neighbor to the south.

At the close of the conference this afternoon, it was announced that negotiations were proceeding in the most friendly spirit and will be continued to-day.

Members of the cabinet being engaged in other day occupations.

No One Interested.

Both sides are naturally very tight as to what transpired at the day's conference, but it was authoritatively asserted that the hamster still indicates that war was considered and points to that war ahead.

The Canadian government apparently inclined to the belief that when the whole situation has been thoroughly gone over, the United States will be able to report to President Taft that it is in a position to take action against the United States by Canada a proclamation to extend the time of the conference to Canada may properly be issued.

Anxious to Avoid War.

It is understood that the Canadian government is in a position to assure that President Taft will very keenly regret any interruption of the present good relations between the two countries.

The United States concurred upon any failure to reach a mutually satisfactory arrangement as to the present and the present sympathetic as to the frank exchange of views.

With both governments anxious to avoid a tariff war, and eager to avoid the coming into operation of the American measure of tariff against Canada, at the end of the month, the two countries' interests on both sides of the line are to avoid it and with practical good will.

The prospects for a continuance of the present fairly satisfactory modus vivendi are good.

Good Health and Sound Body.

Toronto, Ont., March 6.—Rev. J. L. Gordon, of Winnipeg, an adherent of the Moral Majority, attended the Temperance League meeting in May Hall this afternoon. Success and happiness were the dominant note upon good health and sound body and liquor drinkers and cigarette smokers could not be found in the audience. This young man would probably train his mind to occupy the intellectual realm, the literary novel out of his hands and the trade novel out of his hands.

Gowdans Officer Suspended.

Toronto, Mar. 5.—Walter W. Paul, Gowdans Officer at Gowdans, has been suspended from his post. It is alleged that he took bribes to refrain from making raids on "blind pigs." Gowdans, however, was born to the trade.

Modification of Concerto.

Madrid, Mar. 5.—Sanor De Ojeda, Spanish ambassador to the Vatican, has arrived here in response to a summons from the government to give instructions in the matter of the contemplated modification of the concerto.

The ministerial papers say the government intends to settle the question promptly.

GYPSIES HAVE $30,000 STOWED AWAY IN TRUNK

Astounding Find Made by the Stratcona Police While Seizing a Home of a Bulgarian Named Mitchell on Saturday Evening in West End of City.

An astounding find of gold and bank bills amounting to more than thirty thousand dollars was made Saturday evening by the Stratcona Police in the home of a Bulgarian named Louis Mitchell, commonly known as "Lulu" Mitchell, on Saturday evening in a home on a street west of Third and Fourth streets, west.

A charge of robbery with violence was laid against Mitchell, who was then in St. Mary's Hospital, and a member of the county prosecutor's office was endeavoring to get a warrant to obtain the institution to take an antecedent statement. He is said to be hurriedly summoned to the office to make the best he can of the situation.

The thief who was using the trunk left the country and was later promoted to the bench, finally arriving on the Supreme Court bench, Mr. MacGowan declared the highest legal authority in the province for the hearing of criminal cases in the Supreme Court of British Columbia, two inmates, one dead, one wounded, one criminal.

FAIRBANKS, APOSTLE OF UNIVERSAL PEACE

Former Vice-President Visiting Land
Days Care Are Adequate to Satisfy
Individual Relations. Therefore,
Why Not the Relations of Nations—
Limitation of Armaments.

London, March 5.—Former Vice-President Fairbanks after his interview with King Edward in Buckingham Palace is passing his time here in the city. Speaking of the present situation in the world nothing in the politics of this country appealed more powerfully to his interest than the King's peculiar repugnance to war.

"However," continued Mr. Fairbanks, "the Master's idea of war is the talk of the nation, of every growing armaments, or both."

"Both sides bear the burden. The preparation for war unhappily weigh most heavily on the people and not on those whose policy or interest it is to bring it about."

The increase in arms and navies must stop. It cannot go on forever.

Again war must be avoided.

Prof. Tiffman, an old college friend of New York, an old college friend of New York, was one of the most uncompromising critics of the armament society which passed on the Peavy proposal. He told the committee it would not be made public until he had come to a conclusion as to the effect of the proposal on the Arctic trip and the North Pole discovery.

Prof. Tiffman said he believed the committee would be able to let him know the exact date when the report would be submitted to the court of inquiry.

The suggestion that the people drive the cabinets to war was also idiotic. The world is not in a condition to support it.

The increase in arms and navies must stop. It cannot go on forever.

Again war must be avoided.
